

Kindergarten

- To continue to be caring and follow the rules
- To work on learning French
- Je veux parler français
- Je veux parler français
- Je veux être respectueux
- Je veux être un bon ami. Je veux respectueux.
- Je veux respectueux
- Je veux mieux comprendre
- Je veux être un bon ami.
- Je veux être un bon ami.
- Je veux parler français
- Je veux être un bon ami.
- Je veux être un bon ami.
- Je veux être un bon ami.
- Je veux mieux comprendre
- Je veux mieux comprendre
- Je veux être un bon ami.
- To be a risk-taker and share my ideas with my friends (show and share Butterscotch)
- To be a communicator and to think before saying, "I don't know" and to continue practicing my alphabets and develop fine motor skills.
- To show respectful listening and to make good choices that help my brain grow.
- To listen and be a respectful learner to have some space and work together with friends
- To use my full body listening and to focus when I learn
- To have Ms. Goddard to help me learn what bushes are safe and not safe.
- To get better at playing. No running around at playtime.
- To not move around at carpet time when it is time to listen
- To get better at listening
- To slow down in the classroom and get better at listening

- To get better at listening also to stop hitting by ignoring and walking away
- I want to get better at chalking letters
- My goal is to get better at the monkey bars
- My goal is to practice my letters and reading with grandpa because I want to learn to read
- My goal is to listen better and not steal play dough and animals
- My goal is to get better at my letters
- To get better at learning and make good choices like helping your friends
- To get better at gardening and letter sounds
- To get better at printing and practice putting up my hand
- To get better at cutting and putting toys away
- My goal is to get better at being a wild girl because I want to help in nature and wild animals
- My goal is to get better at building stuff, tying knots, and cutting stuff
- My goal is to be quiet and quiet time.
- My goal is to get better at cleaning up right away
- My goal is to get better at letters
- To increase my use of French vocabulary
- To think more about numbers during class activities
- To develop more language skills and speak more French in the classroom
- To be good friend and a leader.
- To increase my use of French vocabulary and continue to be a friend to the people in my class
- To be good at communication and be a good friend
- To be a good friend and a leader
- I want to think more about letters and numbers during class activities
- I want to think more about letters during class activities
- To speak more French in class
- To try and speak more French in class.
- To be a good friend and a leader in my class
- To learn how to speak more French in class
- To become a leader in our class by being a good friend
- To become a leader in our class by being a good friend and developing my skills
- To speak more French in class

Grade I

- Reading books at home, focus on the teacher and try not to be silly.
- Being nice and using kind words also completing a task
- Putting my shoes away, taking care of my belongings, and cutting more carefully
- Reading by practicing at home and printing lower case letter, also getting a job as a doctor!
- To improve my listening skills by staying focused
- Trying to be brave while I'm writing
- Being a brave writer and practicing reading
- Keeping my body in the green zone and sounding out letters
- To keep working on putting my shoes on the right feet and also paying attention to what I'm doing.
- To keep focused and ignore distractions also to use kind words and practice reading
- To learn my alphabet letters and sounds by being brave.
- Reading and number practice.
- Printing—be brave by sounding out words.
- Reading—sounding out words. Practicing sight words
- Reading, sounding our sight words, and raising my hand and not interrupting
- To be a risk-taker and guide my peers and also continue home reading
- To recognize my emotions and find ways to get into the calm zone
- To continue practicing my alphabets and numbers
- To choose a learning spot where I can focus and practice reading
- To continue being caring and following the rules at school also to read together to practice my literacy skills.
- To work on being a communicator and ensure my ideas are shared to reflect my feeling
- To continue being a caring learner and to be a risk-taker in my learning
- To find a learning spot where I can focus also to be a respectful learner when I read
- To focus during carpet time and to continue practicing the alphabet and sounds at home and school

- To continue to follow the rules and choose kind words when problem solving with peers
- To be a communicator and to use my silent hand when I have an idea to share
- To continue using my WITS and choosing nice words when problem solving and to read and write daily
- I want to work on counting
- To work on being quiet at the carpet
- I want to work on printing neatly and art
- I want to work on math
- To work on skip counting and reading
- Reading math
- Work on skip counting and reading
- Work on reading skills
- Work on sharing my ideas
- I want to work on sitting quietly
- Work on reading
- Work on sitting quietly at the carpet
- Work on skip counting
- Recognizing my numbers 1-20 and ignoring distractions around me
- Staying organized, putting on my coat, taking out my planner and making sure my work is organized
- Reading—practicing at home and at school
- Sharing my toys and keeping on reading and counting
- Continue to be brave with writing, don't be scared
- Sharing the Barbies with friends
- Cutting—taking my time and printing in the lines
- Practicing numbers, recognizing and recalling up to 20
- Doing my math better by practicing at home and holding my pencil correctly

Grade 2

- I want to get better at reading
- I would like to get better at reading
- I want to get to be a better friend.
- I would like to get better at writing and using lower case letters. I will ask for help.
- I want to get better at spelling the sentences
- I want to get better at math
- I will get better at reading
- I want to get better at spelling
- I will work on getting better at writing
- I want to get better at reading and writing
- I want to get better at fact family
- I want to do grade three math
- I want to get better at reading and writing
- I want to get better at math workshop
- I will try to read to an adult
- I want to get better at reading and math
- I want to get better at drawing and keep working on IEP goals
- I want to get better at reading and spelling
- Taking my time on writing neatly.
- I will try to get better at reading
- I want to get better at math
- I want to get better at spelling
- I will get better at writing
- I will like to get better at reading
- I will work on my printing and playing with lots of friends
- When reading I will work on pausing at the periods.
- I would like to read chapter books
- I would like to be kind to others while playing outside. I will also slow down while writing
- I would like to get better at math and I would also like to learn about animals
- I would like to get better at printing, I will go slower.
- I would like to get better at math, especially adding, I will also slow down.

- I would like to get better at math. I will use a number line to help me.
- I would like to stop interrupting and I will raise my hand
- I would like to get better at soccer, I will talk to Mr. H about borrowing a soccer ball to practice
- I would like to make my work neater by taking more time
- To get better at math especially subtraction, I will participate on class more and use my number line
- To learn more about Canada and also to learn how to use my WITS
- Work on sitting quietly
- I would like to get better at subtraction, I will use the number line to help
- I want to work on skip counting
- I want to work on my spelling
- I want to work on sitting quietly at the carpet
- Work on number sense
- Work on sitting quietly at the carpet
- Work on skip counting
- Focus on cosinchrad
- Work on spelling and sounding out words
- I want to work on my spelling

Grade 3

- I would like to get better at writing, I would like to get neater and write my letters the right way.
- I would like to get better at reading. I will ask others to help me read
- I would like to do more writing I will do 4 sentences in my journal.
- To read more at home and during DEAR, I will also write more during my journal time and stay at my desk
- I will complete my writing journal before my picture
- I chat less with my friends during work times.
- To complete my work without being distracted and before drawing. To write more of my work in my math journal and writing a book.
- I will complete extra challenge for math and spelling
- I will do extra challenge questions in my math journal. I will do five extra challenge question each week
- Taking more time write neater and add details, when I feel angry I will remember to use my coping strategies
- I will do extra challenge questions in my math journal I would like to complete extra challenge spelling words
- I will read more at home and during DEAR to boost my reading level
- I will work on my spelling and punctuation in my journal
- I will complete extra math questions at home and try to write out more questions in math journal. I will focus more during work time and get less distracted.
- Following the classroom rules and routines without reminders
- Read more at home and during D.E.A.R
- I will read more at home and at school I will also continue to write more sentences in my journal and my writing book.
- I want to read more at home and at school to increase my reading level. I will focus on neater printing in my writing.
- My goal is to be patients
- My goal is to learn multiplication, handwriting and printing neater.
- Follow classroom rules and routines without reminders and adding an extra 5 spelling words to my spelling.
- To read more at home and at school to boost my reading level also to increase my focus and manage myself—self regulation.

- I will focus more in class and get less distracted by my peers and try to write more in my journal and writing book.
- To read more challenging books at home and school. I will use proper punctuation in my journal.
- I will complete extra challenge questions in my math journal. Practice playing guitar at home to build on music skills I learned at school.
- To read more at home and school to boost my reading level and also to practice my spelling words more
- When I am frustrated I will use calming strategies, ask for help, or take a break. I will also read more at home and school. I will write more independently.
- I will work on being more patient and listening to the teacher. I will work on using proper punctuation, grammar, and capitalization.
- Journaling at home to expand on writing abilities I will improve on my grammar and punctuation in my writing.
- To complete my work without getting distracted and to write more in my journal
- My goal is to listen and choose a spot on the carpet wisely
- My goal is reading longer words
- My goal is handwriting
- To get better at cursive
- My goal is to read a chapter book
- My goal is to print neater
- My goal is to get better at hand writing
- My goal is to get better at adding
- My goal is to get better at drawing characters
- My goal is studying spelling
- My goal is spelling harder words and longer sentences
- My goal is reading and learning to be a better listener
- My goal is to learn handwriting better
- I want to be better at listening skills
- My goal is to get better at handwriting
- My goal is to get better at spelling city
- To learn handwriting
- My goal is to being good at multiplication
- My goal is to get better at spelling
- My goal is to learn my times tables because when I play math bingo I always try to do timing but its very hard

Grade 4

- Write better sentences by adding detail and punctuation
- Continue with home reading and practice counting things around the house and also find opportunities for daily physical activity outside of school
- To get better at times tables
- To speak up during class when I know the answer
- To read more challenging books
- Is to improve in times tables
- To improve in reading
- To improve in learning my multiplication tables
- To improve my spelling marks
- To make my writing juicier and more detailed
- To continue to improve my drawing
- I want to improve in not calling out in class
- To re-read parts that I don't understand
- To improve at my times tables
- My goal is to use my time more wisely and stop talking
- To get better at math and division
- To get better at spelling
- To improve my focus
- To not be as hard on myself and not worry so much
- To get better at subtraction facts in math
- I want to do more division and write more clearly
- I want to improve my writing by putting capitals in
- Improve on my times tables
- I want to improve my reading
- Reading improvement by taking home books to read to an adult, also 5 Raz kids books a week and reading and answering questions
- To get better at division by practicing on IXL and Xtra math
- To write better and longer sentences by using describing words and taking more time with my work
- To improve my reading by reading daily at home and at school also learning the sight words

- To read harder books and do more novel studies and find more titles from my favorite authors
- To improve my printing and presentation of work, to work slowly, carefully, and proofreading my work. Use finger spacing, legible letter formation and peer check
- To get better at writing, to read at home and with Mr Foster, and print carefully forming letters properly, to pay close attention and be respectful, to choose a good learning spot, to remember the school code of conduct, and also to work for short periods of time and then increase them gradually
- To work on subtraction with regrouping, to help Ms. Lo with her website, to do my math unit in class and challenge myself to solve 4 digit equations
- To get better at division by making flashcards and practicing with a classmate
- To try harder spelling words, continue to be in the orange group, and use the words that follow the pattern
- To improve my written output to use reading glasses more often and look at getting noise-cancelling headphones. Also to copy writing examples from my desk.
- To control my emotions, and read more on Raz-Kids, as well as do a quiz once a week. Also I will get a soft squishy thing to squeeze in class
- Improving my printing skills, letter formation, and checking over my work for finger spacing, capitals and punctuation
- To work on my unsupervised behavior and choose good role models to be with
- To continue to improve my reading by reading harder words and reading at home for 20 minutes each day
- To get better at division by practicing at home and using flash cards and the website
- To get better at math by practicing and learning my basic math facts
- To make my planner message legible and carefully check letter formation and finger spacing
- To keep improving as a reader and writer and use more details in my stories
- To improve my writing by being clearer and checking my spelling also using a pre-writing checklist
- To read harder words, and novels for novel studies
- To get better at printing by proofreading and using capitals and finger spacing
- To get better at math (division and multiplication facts) by using flashcards.

Grade 5

- My goal is to follow criteria closely and focus what teachers are teaching
- My goal is to have less corrections in RW/novel study by going back and checking my work to make sure its all correct and handed in.
- My goal is to be more organized with my materials by tacking my work into my duo-tangs right away.
- My goal is to improve my math skills. I will practice as often as I can at home before bed.
- To produce neater printing by slowing down my writing
- My goal is to write more neatly so people can read my work more easily. I will use COPS to edit my work.
- I want to work on an independent project on medicinal plants and their uses by using books and spare time and home and school
- My goal is to improve my spelling in my daily work by using COPS to check my spelling.
- My goal is to be more efficient with my class time by not talking so I will get less homework on days I have activities like dance.
- My goal is to get better at writing, to be more detailed when I'm writing stories and have good punctuation.
- To do a project on Jackie Robinson in my spare time at school
- My goal is to read over my work before I handing it in.
- Work on editing my work
- To get faster at running and practice my times tables
- To get better at multiplication and much
- To get better at push ups and be a bit quicker in math
- To get more fit and get way better at multiplication
- To get better at basketball shooting, grounds clean up, and get faster at division and multiplication
- To get smarter on my times tables
- Trying to run a very long time and trying to get a good score
- To improve my homestay relationship and make another friend
- To be more organized and listen to other people's speaking
- To study very much and hard. To get enough stress to compress
- Getting better at controlling my anxiety, as well as improve in basketball, drawing, making new friends and gymnastics

- To get better at aiming and throwing as well as faster at multiplication facts
- To donate more to the school as well as improve my basketball and times tables
- To get better at throwing and my times tables. I also want to get better at making maps in social studies
- Trying to run faster and doing better at place value
- To get better at shooting in basketball and division
- To improve in division and running and stretching, also trying to organize my stuff better
- To be more organized, and help my sisters more and become better at division.
- Get better at shooting in basketball and try not to make a mess with the glue
- To get better at my times tables, division, and to run faster
- To get better at reading and to help out the school with events and speak French
- To treat cats nicer, to keep calm, speed up on my times tables
- To be a neater speller and be fitter.
- To be better at basketball and to improve my times tables and division.
- To get better at three digit division and drawing digitally, also learning how to cook
- To get better at times tables and taking notes
- To get better at listening and become way smarter and get better at art.

Grade 6

- My goal is to get my homework done more quickly by focusing more and starting sooner
- My goal is to think outside the box and problem solve on my own without asking teachers for the pointers
- My goal is to concentrate more in class by making eye contact and active listening
- My goal is to get on task faster
- My goal is to have less corrections and more detail added to comprehension and projects (critical thinking)
- My goal is to be more descriptive when I'm writing by looking over my work and adding descriptive words to it
- To talk less in class and focus more on my work
- To memorize my division tables by practicing at home and at school.
- To be moved up one group in spelling by December
- My goal is to try and stop my anxiety at school by doing things I'm scared of
- My goal is to be at school on time. I will be on time and at school before the bell rings
- My goal is to read over my work before handing it in.
- My goal is to get better at math by staying focused and not rushing it as much.
- My goal is to start studying for tests and to get my work done before the end of the year (2016)
- To get my work done before it is due by using my work times better
- To get all work done on time by using my time wisely
- To put up my hand more during class discussions
- My goal is to keep my duo tangs neat and to tack my paper in by not rushing to go outside or being lazy
- My goal is to get my work done on time by focusing on my work and using my time wisely
- To get better at coloring and math.
- To practice my division using flashcards and my parents to test me
- To get to know the capitals of each province as well as the their premiers
- To read more fluently by reading 5 to 6 times per book

- My goal is to have a greater knowledge of the world by using a globe and atlas for researching countries.
- To get better at reading by reading every night.
- My goal is to slow down and be a neater printer.
- To become more organized and know my division facts more. I will use my Duotang holder and flashcards to help me.
- My goal is to get zero 15's by getting my work done on time.
- My goal is to be a better reader by reading every day
- My goal is to organize my work each day and check over my written work for detail
- My goal is to know my multiplication facts better by using flashcards and practicing 2 times a week.
- My goal is to run 5 laps during walk/run, I will do this by running or walking faster
- To get better in math by practicing my times tables 3 times each week.
- My goal is to write more detail, I will do this by reading my stories and adding to them
- To become a better speller by looking up words I don't know.
- My goal is to go to school more often by coming to school even when I don't feel so well.
- To do better at writing paragraphs and answering comprehension questions. I will think before writing down the words and use capitals.
- I would like to feel less nervous for tests, the math test I took on patterning by using calming techniques

Grade 7

- I would like to learn how to play foosball after my work is done. I would like to get ready for high school by having some visits.
- My goal is to improve my reading. I will accomplish this by practicing 5 days a week.
- My goal is to put more detail and effort in to my work, I'm going to accomplish this by slowing down.
- My goal is to focus better in class, I'm going to accomplish this by listening to music to block out the distractions around me.
- My goal is to put up my hand and participate more in class discussions
- My goal is to be more healthy. I will accomplish this by running more laps and going for a walk.
- To improve my public speaking skills and gaining more confidence when speaking in front of the class.
- To participate more in all subjects by being more confident and just going for it.
- My goal is to get more confident in French. I will do this by using my Duolingo app and practicing my pronunciation.
- My goal is to improve in math by going for extra help when I need it.
- My goal is to start putting up my hand more often and start to read in front of the class.
- My goal is to work on my math concepts which I will do by staying after school with Ms. Pajak.
- My goal is to think more creatively and outside the box. I will accomplish this by looking at other people's art and try to make it look like my own. I'm also going to find better words to express my work.
- To improve in math. I will accomplish this by bringing my math home and being more focused during class time.
- To not talk when I'm not supposed to. I will accomplish this by putting a sticky note on my desk to remind me.
- My goal is to be a strong leader in our school. I am going to accomplish this by donating time to helping others
- To do better in French. I am going to accomplish this by practicing my French 10 minutes each day
- My goal is to get better at math by studying my times tables and working with Ms. Pajak where necessary.
- My goal is to improve my reading, writing, and ability to speak clearly. I will accomplish this by practicing each day with an EA or the speech pathologist

- To make better use of my extra class time. I will do this by starting an enrichment project on my own.
- My goal is to put 110% into my work all the time. I will accomplish this taking my time and trying my best
- To be more confident in art. I will accomplish this by searching up how to draw things and take more time practicing shapes
- To be more focused and stay on task. I will sit at the back table with the teacher when I need to focus.
- To get better at math and be more organized. I'm going to accomplish this by studying and practicing more for tests. I'm also going to organize my papers more often
- To finish my homework on time which I will accomplish by staying in at recess or doing my work at home.
- To be more organized and stay focused during class time. I will accomplish this by putting loose papers in my binder right away and keeping better track of my school supplies. I am also going to move myself away from my friends during work time
- My goal is to stay more focused during class time I am going to accomplish this by staying away from people who distract me
- My goal is to improve my art. I'm going to accomplish this by taking more time with my art and brainstorming more creative ideas before I start
- To get better at remembering vocabulary words in science. I am going to accomplish this by using my flashcard app to quiz myself
- Get all my work done by doing some on Friday night. Reading for fun by reading every day and listening in the car and being more confident in class by answering one question each day.
- Showing my work in math, not worrying so much have neater writing by slowing down and run one lap
- Slowing down in math and focusing more in PE. I need to work more in French by answering more questions and studying/taking them home.
- I will try to not talk to my friends when not supervised, and improve my math by not rushing my work and asking for help when I need to and taking French home to study
- I want to improve my math by studying more often going to homework club, asking for help and bringing work home by using the homework checklist
- I want to work right away so I don't have any homework by focusing more and not chatting with friends. I'd like to be more organized by tacking in it in right away and having dad sign my planner by showing him.
- I want to get better at math by listening to the lesson and not getting distracted with other items. Also in PE and show my work. Improve my French by asking for help when needed.

- I would like to work on my music quizzes by studying I would also like to work on my RT by organizing my time better. I would also like to focus on paying attention by trying not to talk to others and less playing
- I want to work on my math by still working with Mr. Foster and listening in class. Also focusing on Ms. Halfnights instead of talking and studying more for tests
- I want to work on a little more socials because I'm not the best at it and I want to work to the best of my capability and not talk as much
- Learn to focus by using the ball less or standing at my desk, also putting school work before friends
- Working with new people outside of my friendship group and trying to let myself come out more in my work.
- Putting my hand up in class more than once each day and getting a jumpstart on my homework
- I would like to participate more in class by raising my hand and improve in science by reviewing the worksheets and studying
- To stay focused on the task at hand and improve my reading by offering to do the first read
- Getting my planner signed and asking for help in math more often
- Trying to be more focused in class by not putting my hands in my desk when the teacher is teaching. Also, studying before tests.
- Work on my spelling and math and asking Mr. Forster for help when needed
- To make all the leadership meetings and branch out by working with other people in the class
- To improve in music by studying for the test, bringing my math book home. I also want to work on sticking up for myself and make good choices
- Try to speak French with less difficulty, be more focused in class discussions by not working ahead and making better choices with friends during class time by trying to make some space
- Chat with neighbours less and be more confident about my work by asking the teacher less
- Having a neater desk, not getting distracted, and completing all homework by bringing it home
- Getting my planner signed more often, getting my assignments completed on time, paying more attention in class by leaving books at home, voluntarily participating in class
- I think I need to improve on my social skills by talking more often and inviting friends to play also improve my math by finishing my work faster and with Mr. Foster